PAWNEE

John M. Settle

The Pawnee county commissioners travelled together to another county and conducted a meeting without providing notice. A technical violaton occurred. A KOMA complaint was made by the Great Bend Tribune concerning the inclusion of a third party in an executive session conducted under the authority of attorney-client privilege. It was determined that the parties shared a common-interest and privilege was not waived. Therefore, no violation occurred.

PHILLIPS

David O. Baumgartner

POTTAWATOMIE

Sherri Schuck

No complaints.

Two KOMA complaints were made concerning the Pottawatomie County Commission concerning conducting a meeting without proper notice and failure to follow the statute for entering into an executive session. Upon investigation it was determined that a violation had occurred when two of the commissioners met to discuss county business outside of a noticed meeting. A settlement was reached in which the commissioners attended appropriate training. It was determined that a technical violation occurred concerning the executive session, but the training would assist the commissioners in the future. A KOMA complaint was made concerning USD 321 concerning discussion of items not listed on the agenda. Upon investigation, it was determined no violation occurred.
